PRESS RELEASE (UPDATED JULY 7, 2008)

American Friends of the Czech Republic (“AFoCR”) will distribute free of charge, 17700 copies of the U.S. edition of Matej Minac’s “Nicholas Winton’s Lottery of Life” translated and expanded by Peter A. Rafaeli. The recipient institution will be responsible for actual shipping and handling charges.

Washington, DC, /Spring House, PA, July 7, 2008: As part of the “Nicholas Winton Educational Project” we announce the immediate availability of the first English language edition of “Nicholas Winton’s Lottery of Life”. This 320 page book, originally published in Czech for use in schools in the Czech Republic, where it is distributed free of charge to students in Czech high schools, colleges, universities and other educational institutions. A German language edition, for use in German speaking countries, was also published several years ago.

“AFoCR” is now ready to accept orders from U.S. educational institutions and libraries. The books will be donated by “AFoCR” to pre-approved educational entities free of charge, except the cost of shipping and handling cost by Publishers Storage and Shipping Company Ypsilanti, MI. A nationwide distribution plan is envisioned. The approved recipients will have to commit in a written donation agreement form that the books will not be sold and that their use will be for the sole purpose of education in the areas of history, political science and Holocaust education. “AFoCR” will consider schools, colleges, universities, churches and synagogues to become approved recipients for the donated books. “AFoCR” reserves the right to limit quantities shipped to any given approved recipient institution in order to ensure nationwide reach. To estimate actual costs please keep in mind the following:

- The books are packaged at 24 books per carton. A carton weighs 25 lbs.
- Go to www.ups.com and calculate cost from ZIP code 48197 to the destination ZIP code by UPS Ground.
- Download from www.afocr.org the “Donation Agreement”, complete it and have it signed by an authorized signer.
- We can help you to calculate the handling charge charged by Publishers Storage and Shipping Corp, the shipper of the books
- For information or assistance please write to Peter A. Rafaeli at Philadelphia@honorary.mzv.cz or call 215.646.7777.
